DAVID YAZBEK
Music & Lyrics

DAVID YAZBEK (Music & Lyrics). A varied career as a recording artist, Emmy Award®-winning TV and screenwriter, music producer, and pianist has somehow led Yazbek to become one of Broadway’s preeminent composer/lyricists. His three shows, The Full Monty, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels and Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown have received a combined 24 Tony Award® nominations, including three for Best Score. As a recording artist, Yazbek is responsible for five albums: The Laughing Man, Tock, Damascus, Tape Recorder and Evil Monkey Man. He has written and/or produced for such acts as XTC, Ruben Blades, The Persuasions, Joe Jackson, Tito Puente and many others. He also produced the original cast albums of his Broadway shows. He has three Grammy Award® nominations. In the past couple of years, he has scored the final season of HBO’s “Boardwalk Empire,” composed music for Larry David’s Fish in the Dark and written songs and music for Much Ado About Nothing at Central Park’s Delacorte Theater, all while opening productions of Scoundrels and Women on the Verge in London’s West End. In past lives, he has written dozens of scripts and many songs for television and film, won an Emmy Award® for his stint on “Late Night with David Letterman” and wrote the unrelenting theme song for “Where in the World is Carmen Sandiego?” David is seven.

Theater Vocabulary
Relating Themes to Our Own Lives
Webbing & Discussion Triggers
“Plays should tell simple, honest stories.”
—David Mamet, American playwright & noted actor, William H. Macy, founders of Atlantic Theater Company

The following activities will assist your students in understanding the intentions of the playwright to tell a simple story.
Teacher Objective
To be able to discuss theater through a common, shared vocabulary.

Student Goal
To understand that the most effective way to discuss theater and new ideas is through a shared vocabulary.

Action: The events that move along the story of the play and which influence the characters within the play.

Characters: Individuals the audience learns about from their actions and reactions.

Ensemble: A group of performers working together to create a complete production.

Dialogue: The exchange of speech between two characters which reveals the feelings of the character as well as the story of the play.

Monologue: A speech by one actor on stage which is intended to reveal the inner thoughts of the character the actor plays.

Character Arc: The change produced in a character by the events and other characters in the play.

Musical Theater: A twentieth century creation where writers and musicians collaborate to create a play which features song, dance and drama.

Mood: The overall feeling the play evokes.

Costume: The clothes, boots, etc., worn by the actors based on their character.

Prop: Objects used by an actor to enhance their character. For example, wine glasses at a bar for drinks.

Set: The constructed environment of a play within which the action takes place.

Sound: Noises and music used in the play.
ISRAELI – ARAB CONFLICT TIMELINE

The Band’s Visit characters’ understanding of themselves is as important as their understanding of each other. But it would be neglectful not to recognize the social and political undertones that frame this chance encounter between people from different sides of a political and cultural struggle; the Arab-Israeli conflict. This rendezvous in the fictional town of Bet Hatikva materializes soon after the signing of the Camp David Accord, a pivotal moment in the timeline of that conflict.

CHET BAKER’S BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

Chet Baker is mentioned in The Band’s Visit. How might a musician from across the globe and decades in the past have influences the characters in The Band’s Visit?
THE STATE OF ISRAEL DECLARED ESTABLISHMENT.

SUEZ CRISIS BETWEEN ISRAELI AND EGYPT OUTBURST. Israeli army forces attacked Egypt, triggered by Egypt nationalizing Suez Canal, initiating the Suez Crisis. In early 1957, Israel withdrew.

SIX-DAY WAR OUTBURST. Israeli eventually occupied east Jerusalem, all of West Bank, Gaza, Golan Heights and Sinai.

YOM KIPPUR WAR OUTBURST. Egyptian and Syrian forces attacked against Israeli army, aiming to win back the lost war in 1967.

CAMP DAVID ACCORD SIGNED BETWEEN ISRAEL AND EGYPT. Egyptian president Anwar el-Sadat and Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin signed the Camp David Accords at White House in the United States, which is the first peace agreement between the two countries.

Sometimes known as the Prince of Cool
and the James Dean of jazz, Chet Baker was one of the most popular and controversial jazz musicians of the 20th Century. Chet Baker was born in Yale, Oklahoma, on December 23, 1929. Chet dropped out of high school at the age of 16 and joined the Army. In the year 1952, Baker moved to LA, where he started working with Charlie Parker. He then joined Gerry Mulligan and rose to stardom with Mr. Mulligan’s quartet. The quartet released many fan favorites including “My Funny Valentine”, “Walkin’ Shoes”, and “Bernie’s Tune”. In 1953, Chet went solo and formed his very own quartet. He made his 1st recording as the bandleader for the Pacific Jazz, on July 24 of the year 1953. With a large fan base drawn by his movie star looks, and his Miles Davis style of music, Baker won many jazz polls in Down Beat where he ranked #4 male vocalist and was named Metronome top trumpeter in the year 1953. In the late 50’s, heroin addiction started taking its’ toll on Baker’s music career. Baker was arrested several times between 50’s and 60’s on drug-related charges. Baker gradually recovered and started performing again in 1970’s with the help of Dizzy Gillespe, who helped him arrange concerts in New York. In 1973, he had a reunion show with Gerry Mulligan. Critics greatly praised his aggressive, intense solos and firmer tone, and many considered his recording between this period to be among the best in his music career. Baker was found dead on May 13th, 1988, outside his Hotel Prins Hendrik, in Amsterdam, Netherlands. He had severe head wounds which were apparently sustained from having fallen from the 2nd-floor window. Cocaine and heroin were found in his room, and later on, an autopsy revealed the drugs were present in his body. The death was ruled as an accident.
Teacher Objective
To develop critical thinking skills through examining the themes in The Band’s Visit.

Student Goal
To understand that the story of the play relates to their own lives.

Materials
Chalkboard, chalk, paper, pens, the webbing ideas, and discussion triggers.

Webbing Ideas
1. Where do I belong? (Acceptance of one’s circumstance).
3. Mistrust
4. Vulnerability
5. Lost
6. Acceptance

Discussion Questions
A Conversation from The Band’s Visit

HALED  (Sighs. Then:) We would like tickets to Betah Tikvah.

TICKET GIRL  Petah Tikvah or Bet Hatikvah?

HALED  Yes. Betah Tikva.

Positive communication builds trust. Do you believe that trust is made more difficult when two individuals speak different languages?

In your life, has there been a time when you found difficult to communicate with someone who speaks a different language?

Step One
Write the Webbing Ideas on the chalkboard.

Step Two
Have each student add their impressions of the meaning of one of these concepts on the board, and how it relates to their own experiences.

Step Three
Use the students’ responses to focus on how unique each student’s perception is of these concepts. Why is this true?

Step Four
Ask the students to discuss how their sense of personal self-esteem and/or vulnerability plays a role in their own lives.

Step Five
Share the discussion trigger and questions with the class:

What are the obstacles we create for ourselves and others in our society, and what do we do when circumstances reveal the vulnerability behind those obstacles?

What is reality, and can artists ever truly capture it?
Section IV: Your Students As Actors

Reading a Scene for Understanding
Practical Aesthetics Exercise
Mini-Lesson Vocabulary
Scene Analysis Worksheet
“Actors should remain truthful to the story and their character.”
- David Mamet, American playwright & noted actor, William H. Macy, Founders of Atlantic Theater Company

The following activities are designed to assist your students in understanding the actor’s “job.” Like every job, even acting has its “tools.”

The Practical Aesthetics acting technique was developed by David Mamet, William H. Macy and the founding members of the Atlantic Theater Company. This technique offers the actor a set of analytical tools to understand the playwright’s intentions and what the characters want. This process of script analysis additionally helps define the actor’s job on stage.
Teacher Objective
To introduce the Practical Aesthetics “tools” for breaking down a scene. To understand the character and the story of the scene by relating the character’s actions to the student’s own life.

Student Goal
To understand that an important part of creating a simple, honest character involves knowing what that character “wants.”

Materials
Pens, pencils, copies of the following scene from The Band’s Visit, and copies of the Literal, Want, Action, As-If worksheet and/or Mini-Lesson.

Practical Aesthetics Exercise

Step One
Divide the students in pairs. Ask the students to select which character they want to portray.

Step Two
Allow the students time to read the scene silently to themselves.

Step Three
Ask the students to read the Introduction to the Practical Aesthetics Acting Technique sheet on page 23 and answer the four questions on the Scene Analysis Worksheet.

Note: The four questions and the students’ answers to them form the basis for the Practical Aesthetics scene analysis; and enables the actor to create a simple, honest character—they’re simply being honest to their own experiences!

Step Four
After the students have completed the question worksheet, ask each pair of actors to read the scene in the front of the classroom for an “Audience.” The students should incorporate the ideas from the worksheet as they read the scene.
DINA  What does it mean?

TEWFIQ  In wintertime, take an umbrella. In summertime, put a hat on your head. In autumn time, stay at home.

(A moment.)

DINA  So...what do you play in the orchestra? You play, like, army music?

(DINA makes the sounds of rapid snare drumming.)

TEWFIQ  No, no. We are traditional orchestra. We play classical Arab music.

DINA  What, like, Oum Kalthum? Farid?

TEWFIQ  You think it’s silly?

DINA  No.

TEWFIQ  No? You like Oum Kalthum?

DINA  Yes!

TEWFIQ  No.

DINA  Yes! Don’t tell me what I like! She is one of my favorite singer. (Beat.) When I was little girl we used to have here, Arab music, Egyptian music. I didn’t what it was, just that it was from these... mysterious people, that I would never meet, but who came to me, through the radio. And on TV, Egyptian movies! Every Friday afternoon all the street in Israel is empty because Arab movie every Friday afternoon.

DINA  OUM KALTHOUM AND OMAR SHARIF CAME FLOATING ON A JASMINE WIND FROM THE WEST, FROM THE SOUTH HONEY IN MY EARS SPICE IN MY MOUTH

DARK AND THRILLING, STRANGE AND SWEET. CLEOPATRA AND A HANDSOME THIEF AND THEY FLOATED IN ON A JASMINE WIND

OUM KALTHOUM AND OMAR SHARIF AND THEY FLOATED IN ON A JASMINE WIND OUM KALTHOUM AND OMAR SHARIF

DINA  The best movie was, em, “River of Love”? Where they meet on the train, she is reading, and he says—

TEWFIQ  “A book is a loyal companion always."

DINA  You know it!

TEWFIQ  Oh. Yes.
ANALYSIS
Script analysis is the process of breaking down a beat within a scene. We ask four questions in order to do this.

1. What is the character literally doing?
2. What does the character want?
3. What is the essential Action?
4. What is that action like to me? It is AS-IF...

Literal
In this step, the actor determines what the character he or she is playing is literally doing according to the text.

Purpose: An actor has to travel far—think of this preparation as the road map.

Want
In this step, the actor identifies the goal of the character in the scene, specifically what the character wants from the other character/s in the scene. The given circumstances of the story inform the WANT.

Purpose: To focus the actor on the characters’ interaction.

Action
Playing an ACTION is the physical pursuit of a goal. Defining the ACTION of the scene allows the actor to determine what result or CAP he or she is looking for from the other actor/s in the scene.

Examples:
Put someone in their place.
Beg someone for forgiveness.
Get a favor.
Get someone to let me off the hook.
Force someone to face the facts.
Inspire someone to greatness.
Get someone to see the light.

Purpose: Using an action gives the actor a task and a specific point of view. The Atlantic Theater Company teaches that the Action creates character.

As-If
In this step, the actor personalizes the action by finding a real-life situation in which they would behave according to the action they have chosen for the scene.

Example: Get a favor.
It’s AS-IF I forgot to do my science homework and I’m asking my teacher for an extra day to hand it in.

Purpose: To gain personal insight and urgency to the scene or beat.

Tactics & Tools
Different ways an actor goes about getting his action.

Example: Plead, flirt, demand, inspire, challenge, level, threaten.

Living in the Moment
Reacting impulsively to what the other actor in the scene is doing, from the point of view of the chosen action.
Mini-Lesson Vocabulary

KEY VOCABULARY

Literal: The process of accessing the basic story-line of the characters in a particular scene or beat.

Want: The process of identifying the goal of the character in a scene or beat.

Action: The actor’s physical pursuit of a specific goal.

As-If: A way to determine what this action means to me.

Acting Tactics & Tools to Use in The As-If Step

POST-THEATER CRITICAL THINKING EXPLORATION

“What is Art?... What is History?... What is the role of an Artist in Society?...”

Teacher Objective
To develop critical thinking skills through examining the language and themes of The Band’s Visit.

Student Goal
To understand that their opinions and observations of an artistic experience are valuable in finding connections between their own lives and the world surrounding them.

Materials
Chalk/Smart Board, paper, pens, the attached graphic organizer.

Step One
Reflecting on The Band’s Visit, ask each student to reflect and respond to the three questions/concepts on the graphic organizer: What is Art? What is History? What is the Role of an Artist in Society? Allow 7 minutes for this activity.

Step Two
Projecting the graphic organizer on the Smart Board or overhead projector, gather the students’ reflections and responses so that everyone can share ideas.

Step Three
Discuss the ideas shared looking for connections between the three concepts.

Step Four
As a class arrives at one cumulative, community statement for each concept.

INDIVIDUAL AND PEER-TO-PEER CRITICAL ASSESSMENT

“I LIKE... I DISCOVER... I WISH...”

Teacher Objective
To develop critical thinking skills through examining the aesthetics of The Band’s Visit.

Student Goal
To understand that their opinions and observations of an artistic experience are valuable in building an appreciation for their own lives and the world surrounding them.

Materials
Chalk/Smart Board, paper, pens, and the “I LIKE... I DISCOVER... I WISH....” graphic organizer (on the next page).

Step One
Divide the students into three groups, ask each group to select a scribe and a reporter.

Step Two
Assign each group a section of the graphic organizer, allow them seven minutes to discuss their ideas around their section – What they liked, what they discovered, or what they wish in relation to the production of The Band’s Visit.

Step Three
Using the smart/chalk board as a recording space, ask the three reporters to share what their group thinks about the three points of view they were assigned.

Step Four
Discuss each group’s choices with the entire class to engage the students in deciding if they agree or disagree with the choices/opinions of each group.

Step Five
Lead the class to arrive at a community consensus for each section.

CREATE THE SONG OF YOUR LIFE

Teacher Objective
To develop critical thinking skills through examining the language and themes of The Band’s Visit.

Student Goal
To understand that their opinions and observations of an artistic experience are valuable in finding a creative outlet for their own lives and the world surrounding them.

Materials
Chalk/Smart Board, paper, pens, iPhone or android device.

Step One
Review the definition of a song: A short poem or other set of words set to music or meant to be sung.

Step Two
Select an individual, situation, or iconic moment from your own life. Use this selection as the writing trigger for your poem/song.

Step Three
Figure out what kind of poem/song you want to write. For example, do you want something intense? Do you want a subtle song or do you want to push the limits of your imagination? You’re the creative artist here, make up your mind - go for it!

Step Four
Spend several minutes free writing your poem/song about the individual, situation, or iconic moment.

Step Five
Reflect on your poem/song and then rewrite the lyrics using more than one literary element (alliteration, analogy, metaphor, archetype, etc.) to add depth and color to your poem/song.

Step Six
Using your iPhone or android device add a beat or rhythm under your words.

Step Seven
Share!
Enduring Understanding
Theater conveys the significance individuals place on their life choices. For example: Jobs, relationships, hopes for the future.

Theater conveys the meaning behind an individual’s struggle to have his or her life choices validated by family, friends and society/community.

Essential Questions
Do the direction and staging reinforce the theme of “where do I belong” which is prevalent in The Band’s Visit.

Do you accept the concept put forward in The Band’s Visit that connecting with someone on a human level can be personally transformative?

WORKING WITH COMMUNITY AND CULTURAL RESOURCES
Benchmark: Students invigorate and broaden their understanding of theater through collaborative partnerships with theater professionals.
Inspired by the Group Theater, Stanislavsky, and a passion for ensemble acting, David Mamet and William H. Macy formed the Atlantic Theater Company with a select group of New York University Undergraduate drama students. Since its inception in 1985, Atlantic has produced more than 100 plays and garnered numerous awards, including: 12 Tony Awards, 15 Lucille Lortel Awards, 16 OBIE Awards, six Outer Critics Circle Awards, seven Drama Desk Awards, three Drama League Awards, three New York Drama Critics Circle Awards and the Pulitzer Prize for Drama. Noted productions include: Spring Awakening, Port Authority, The Lieutenant of Inishmore, The Beauty Queen of Leenane, Boy’s Life, and American Buffalo. The Atlantic Theater Company’s mission is to produce plays simply and truthfully, utilizing an artistic ensemble. Atlantic believes that the story of the play and the intent of its playwright are at the core of a successful theatrical production.

The Atlantic Acting School fosters new generations of actors by passing on the tools learned from Mamet and Macy and by preparing students for all aspects of a career in film, television and theater. The Atlantic offers studies through New York University, a full-time conservatory program, part-time programs and summer workshops. Atlantic for Kids offers acting classes in an after school setting as well as summer programs for children ages 4 to 18.
